1. Donations received

This part is to be completed for all candidates and Senate group members

The disclosure period for reporting donations received by a candidate commences 31 days after the previous Federal election contested by the candidate within the past 4 years (House of Representatives) or 7 years (Senate), or otherwise from the commencement of candidature, and concludes 30 days after polling day.

The commencement dates are:

Candidates who have contested Federal elections or by-elections;

Election	Polling date	Commencement date
Senate election	10 November 2001	11 December 2001
General/Senate election	9 October 2004	9 November 2004
Werriwa by-election	19 March 2005	19 April 2005

Endorsed candidate - from the date endorsed for this election;

Independent candidate - from the date candidacy was declared;

Appointee to a casual Senate vacancy - from the date of appointment.

A. What commencement date applies to this part?

B. Total of gifts or donations received

This is the total value of all gifts or donations received during the disclosure period. A gift or donation may be cash, or it may be the value of free goods and services, or discounts other than those in the normal course of business.

C. Total number of donors

This is the total number of donors who made the gifts or donations referred to in B above.

D. Details of donations requiring disclosure

Details of gifts or donations received which total more than $10,500.

Where a number of gifts or donations received from a donor add to or exceed the more than $10,500 disclosure threshold, the date and value of each must be provided.

The name and address details should be sufficient to enable the donor to be contacted by the AEC (e.g. about the lodgement of a donor return)

- If a gift was from an unincorporated association (other than a registered industrial organisation), the name of the association and the names and addresses of the committee members are required;
- If a gift was from a trust, the name of the trust and the names and addresses of the trustees are required.

Part 2 – Electoral expenditure

This part is to be completed for all candidates OTHER THAN Senate group members

The disclosure period for reporting electoral expenditure commences on the issue of the writ and concludes at the close of polling. For this election the disclosure period is from 17 October 2007 to 24 November 2007.

The specified categories of electoral expenditure incurred by or on behalf of a candidate must be reported:

- Other campaign expenditure (e.g. travel and administrative costs) is not reported;
- Expenditure incurred during the disclosure period must be reported regardless of when payment was actually made (e.g. the cost of production before the issue of the writ of advertisements run during the disclosure period must be included);
- Expenditure incurred by the campaign committee of an endorsed candidate, or expenditure incurred by an endorsed candidate with the authority of the party is not disclosed in this return. It should be reported to the party for inclusion in its annual disclosure return;
- Electoral expenditure by a member of a Senate group is not disclosed in this return. It is disclosed in the return of the Senate group, or of the endorsing party.

1. Broadcasting electoral advertisements (including production costs)	$0
2. Publishing electoral advertisements (including production costs)	$0
3. Displaying electoral advertisements at a place of entertainment such as a cinema (including production costs)	$0
4. Production of campaign material requiring authorisation ⁱ (e.g. how to vote cards, posters and pamphlets)	$0
5. Direct mailing (including printing and postage)	$0
6. Opinion polling and other electoral research	$0

ⁱ Campaign material requiring authorisation is electoral advertising required by section 328 of the Act to include the name and address of the person who authorised the advertisement and, except in the case of newspapers, the name and place of business of the printer at the end. Section 328A imposes a similar requirement on electoral advertisements on the internet.
