Part 1 - Donations received

Candidates must report the total of all donations received from the start of the disclosure period (as determined below) until 30 days after polling day, that is, until 4 January 2010.

Disclosure Period

If you have stood at a Senate election within the past seven years or a House of Representatives election within the past four years (including by-elections) your disclosure period commences 31 days after polling day for the last election you contested.

If you have not contested an election within these periods, but were appointed to a casual senate vacancy, your disclosure period commences from the date you were appointed. Otherwise, your disclosure period commences on declaration of your candidacy, for example to the media. For candidates endorsed by a party this is likely to be the day you were pre-selected. The latest possible date would be the date you nominated if you had made no announcement

1. Total of gifts or donations received

$ 5216

This is the total value of all donations received during the disclosure period. A gift or donation may be cash, or it may be the value of free goods and services, or discounts given to you other than those in the normal course of business.

2. Total number of donors

This is the total number of donors who made the donations referred to in question 2 above.

3. Details of donations requiring disclosure

The name and address details should be sufficient to enable the donor to be contacted by the AEC (e.g. about the lodgement of a donor return)

- If a gift was from an unincorporated association (other than a registered industrial organisation), the name of the association and the names and addresses of the committee members are required;
- If a gift was from a trust, the name of the trust and the names and addresses of the trustees are required.
