Part 2 - Electoral expenditure

Electoral expenditure on goods or services used in the election period (between the issue of the writ and the close of polling) must be disclosed. For this election the period is from Friday, 30 October 2009 to Saturday, 5 December 2009.

Completing this page:

- Other campaign expenditure (e.g. travel, administrative or hire of premises costs) is not reported;
- Expenditure incurred during the election period must be reported regardless of when payment was actually made (e.g. the cost of production before the issue of the writ of advertisements run during the election period must be included);
- Expenditure incurred by the campaign committee of an endorsed candidate, or expenditure incurred by an endorsed candidate with the authority of the party is not disclosed in this return. It should be reported to the party for inclusion in its annual disclosure return;
- Electoral expenditure by a member of a Senate group is not disclosed in this return. It is disclosed in the return of the Senate group, or of the endorsing party.

The specified categories of electoral expenditure incurred by or on behalf of a candidate that must be reported are:

1. Broadcasting electoral advertisements (including production costs)	$
2. Publishing electoral advertisements (including production costs)	$ 853.60
3. Displaying electoral advertisements at a place of entertainment such as a cinema (including production costs)	$
4. Production of campaign material requiring authorisation ⁱ (e.g. how to vote cards, posters and pamphlets)	$
5. Direct mailing (including printing and postage)	$
6. Opinion polling and other electoral research	$

ⁱ Campaign material requiring authorisation is electoral advertising required by section 328 of the Act to include the name and address of the person who authorised the advertisement and, except in the case of newspapers, the name and place of business of the printer at the end. Section 328A imposes a similar requirement on electoral advertisements on the internet.
