ELECTION DONATIONS

1. Disclosure period for donations received

All election donations received during the disclosure period must be listed on the adjacent page. The disclosure period commences on the 31st day after a previous Federal election you have contested or otherwise from the commencement of your candidature and concludes 30 days after polling day.

Commencement date of disclosure period

- f) If you have stood previously as a candidate in any of the Federal elections or by-elections listed below, your disclosure period commences from the date indicated against the most recent election contested.

Election	Polling Date	Commencement date for disclosure of donations
Senate election	2 March 1996	2 April 1996
Senate election	3 October 1998	3 November 1998
Holt by-election	6 November 1999	7 December 1999
Isaacs by-election	12 August 2000	11 September 2000
Ryan by-election	17 March 2001	16 April 2001
Aston by-election	14 July 2001	14 August 2001
General/Senate election	10 November 2001	11 December 2001

- ii) If you have not stood previously as a candidate in a Federal election or by-election, and:
- you stood at this election as an endorsed candidate, your disclosure period commences from the date of your endorsement for this election; or
 - you stood at this election as an independent candidate, your disclosure period commences from the date that you declared your candidacy; or
 - you were appointed to a casual Senate vacancy, your disclosure period commences from the date that you were appointed.

ELECTORAL EXPENDITURE

5. The period covered by this return is from 16 September 2002 to 19 October 2002

Set out below the totals for each category of electoral expenditure incurred by the candidate on campaign goods and services used during the election period from the issue of the writ to the close of polling.

6. Totals of electoral expenditure

Expenditure incurred by, or on behalf of, the candidate must be included in the category totals below.

Note:

- electoral expenditure does not need to be completed for a candidate who was a member of a Senate group;
- only the listed categories of campaign expenditure are disclosed (eg travel and telephone costs are not included);
- expenditure on campaign goods or services used must be included irrespective of when payment was actually made (eg the cost of production incurred before the writ was issued, of advertisements shown during the election period, is included); and
- electoral expenditure incurred by the campaign committee of an endorsed candidate does not need to be included as it is to be included in a return lodged by the party.
